E Pluribus Unum. Law, Love, and the Work of Becoming One

What happens when a state treats law enforcement as the problem and ignores the purpose of the law itself?

This piece confronts a dangerous shift in immigration policy this week, and reminds readers that compassion and boundaries are not opposites.

E Pluribus Unum was never just about diversity. It was about becoming one people, under one law, for the sake of safety, unity, and prosperity.

Please read why that principle matters now more than ever.

Rep. Max Brooks Is Running for Re-Election in 2026

Colorado is at a turning point. Families are stretched thin, crime is rising, and the State Capitol keeps pushing policies that weaken local control and punish working people. This is exactly why I'm running for re-election.

If you want a Representative who will fight for affordability, defend public safety, protect your freedoms, and stand firm for Douglas County values, I'm asking you to help power this campaign. Your donation keeps our message strong, our operation ready, and our conservative voice in the room when the next battles are decided.
