Thank You, House District 45

Dear Friends,

Thank you.

I am deeply grateful to the voters of House District 45 for entrusting me with another term in the Colorado House of Representatives.

This election brought significant changes across our state. Here in District 45, we withstood the storm, and I am humbled by the confidence our community has placed in me.

Throughout my service, I have focused on protecting public safety, supporting hardworking Colorado families, addressing affordability, strengthening small businesses, defending individual freedoms, and ensuring government remains accountable to the people it serves.

These priorities will continue to guide my work at the Capitol.

To everyone who volunteered, contributed, encouraged our campaign, or took the time to participate in this election, thank you. Your generosity, commitment, and confidence mean more than words can express.

The voters have spoken. The election is behind us, but the responsibility of public service continues.

Whether you voted for me or not, I remain committed to listening, representing our district, and working toward practical solutions to the challenges facing Colorado families.

Thank you for the privilege of serving you.

With Sincere Gratitude,

Max Brooks
